OFFICE OF THE GENERAL COUNSEL: USF REGULATIONS

NOTICE: (Regulation USF4.0107) Proposed Miscellaneous Student Housing Charge

DATE: May 18, 2009

SUMMARY:

The USF Tampa campus proposes to establish a miscellaneous housing charge for students electing to live in a "Living Learning Community" on campus, beginning with the fall 2009 semester. The charge to participate in this program will be up to $225 per person per semester. The charge is in addition to the established basic housing rates approved by the Board of Trustees on March 19, 2009.

The Living Learning Communities cluster students with similar academic interests and/or majors to allow them to integrate their classroom work with their out of class experiences. Students are provided academic support through targeted programming, academic advising, and access to faculty and staff.

Florida Statutes section 1009.24(13(h) and BOG regulation 7.003(11) authorize university boards of trustees to establish miscellaneous housing charges for services provided at the request of students. Only the students who elect to participate in the Living Learning Communities will be assessed the charge.
